

Security

Ordering is secure:

- No financial data are retained on our Lunch Direct hosting server;
- Transactions are processed using a secure connection
- Our Merchant Account handling credit card processing is Elavon/InternetSecure a leading worldwide provider.
- InternetSecure handles the actual interface, and manages the security of the parent financial data. They provide a “token” system which allows completing sensitive information during the checkout process.